Subject: First Appeal under the Right to Information Act, 2005

Ref: RTI Petition dated 24.11.2023, Reference No. 048/RTI/2023

Sir,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to you about my Right to Information (RTI) petition dated 24.11.2023, bearing reference number 048/RTI/2023. Despite the stipulated time frame for response having lapsed, I regret to inform you that I have yet to receive any communication or information regarding the queries raised in my RTI application.

For your convenience, I am reiterating the information sought in my original RTI petition:

- 1) I would like to know whether there was a students' union at Siliguri College of Commerce between the period of 07.05.21 to 27.12.21.
- 2) If a students' union existed during the specified period, please provide the names of the students holding various portfolios within the union.

I would like to express my concern and disappointment regarding the non-responsive stance of the designated State Public Information Officer (SPIO) to my initial RTI application. As per the provisions of the Right to Information Act, 2005, I have the right to seek information, and the concerned authorities must adhere to the statutory timelines for responding to such requests.

In light of the above, I am filing this first appeal before you to seek your intervention in ensuring a prompt and appropriate response to my queries. I request you to kindly review the matter and direct the concerned official to furnish the requested information at the earliest, by the provisions of the RTI Act.

Mithu Das

I believe in the principles of transparency and accountability that underlie the RTI Act, and I trust that your esteemed office will take the necessary steps to uphold these principles. I am hopeful that this appeal will receive the attention it deserves, and that the information sought will be provided without further delay.

I am enclosing a copy of my original RTI application for your reference. I would appreciate it if you could acknowledge the receipt of this appeal and keep me informed about the proceedings.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and I look forward to a positive resolution.

Yours sincerely,

Mithu Das
